

Terms and Conditions

Online Membership

- Depending upon the membership you choose, you will have access to all Livestreamed classes, Class recordings and/or On demand library as long as you are a subscriber. Subscriptions are paid monthly in advance.
- You can cancel your subscription at any time and you will have access to the resources until the period of payment ends.
- We reserve the right to withdraw access to these resources at any time. In the unlikely event of this happening, we will refund any unused monthly payment.
- Membership and access to this online platform is not transferable to any third party.
- Please read the information regarding the class description to ensure that it is suitable for you.

Class Passes, Drop-ins for Online and In-person classes

- Unfortunately, payments for the above are non-refundable but may be transferred to another class/ day if enough notice is given.
- Unfortunately, we are unable to refund or transfer no shows.
- Class passes must be used before the end of the expiry date.
- Should Willow Glow Yoga cancel a class, your payment will be transferred or refunded.

Disclaimer: Your Health and Safety.

- When attending online events or using the on demand library it is your responsibility to ensure that your environment is a safe place from which to practise ie. room to move and free of sharp or dangerous objects.
- You agree to accept full responsibility for your own health and wellbeing and agree there is no liability on the part of the teacher for your participation.
- We recommend consulting a doctor before undertaking any exercise programme, especially if you have any underlying health conditions, injuries, recent surgeries or if you are pregnant.
